

Membership Application

Your annual membership in the Roland Curtin Foundation supports our mission to preserve Eagle Iron Works and Curtin Village, and to provide opportunities for public education and recreation on a remarkably diverse 19th-century industrial heritage site featuring an 1831 ironmaster's mansion, an iron furnace complex, and a workers' village.

Four levels of membership are available. Those who join between now and November 1, 2021 will receive a 15-month membership. Membership categories are:

Individual $30.00

Household (more than 2) $50.00

Individual +1 $40.00

Photographer $40.00

* Photographer Membership: The heavy timber framing, natural stone masonry, white mansion walls, and attractive grounds provide a variety of unique settings and backdrops for outdoor photography. Through this special membership, professional photographers support the maintenance of our picturesque site, while enjoying increased visibility through membership acknowledgement on our social media platforms. Member photographers are invited to members-only events, and are notified of other activities and programs likely to afford photographic opportunities.

Payment options are listed below. Please submit this completed form in order to receive future program announcements and two guest passes for a "members only" event. If mailing a check to the Foundation, return this form with your payment. If making payment via the on-line membership link, please complete, scan and email the completed form to Curtinville@gmail.com Thank you.
